Back to the Classics

As you'll notice, this isn't our usual format! And if you didn't, go see an eye doctor! This week, we're going to go back to 2007 & 2008 with our old formatting, pictures, and style!

I, the Mighty Chicken, am Bawk!
Get it... 'cause I'm a chicken... and... Bawk...is...back? Poo...

Student Interview

For this week's interview, we have Jacob Wilkerson from Mrs. Gursky's 4th grade class. His most favorite color is red. He's got two poodles at home, which are his favorite animal. He says computers are fun to play on (maybe he should join Barth Bear Weekly...we do a lot of that...) His favorite place to shop is JC Penny's. That's all we have for now! Remember, read Barth Bear Weekly!

Remember me? The new Barth Bear Weekly writers trapped me inside a dark box in a computer!

Any Requests?

Do you know an interesting story that we can put in the paper? Well, if it's really exhilarating (meaning exciting), you can put it in our "Requests" folder. The folder will be in the office where the teachers' mailboxes are. To get your story in the folder, you could either ask Ms. Bills, Mrs. Fortune, or your teacher to put it in there for you. NO STUDENTS CAN GO DO IT BY THEIRSELF UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES!!
